Public Budget Consultation

As part of the 2018-19 school division budget consultation process, a public meeting was held prior to the January 22 Board Meeting. Included in the presentation were slides comparing KSD with four nearby school divisions in all areas of revenue and expenditures, a summary of additional, prioritized requests from administration, and a table on bus replacement plans. All this documentation is also found on the KSD website. A response questionnaire was handed out, and is available on line, for feedback on priorities.
